PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MADISON . . . The Department of Regulation and Licensing announced that the following disciplinary orders were issued in November 2002.

Thomas Bowlin, West Allis – Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked the temporary private security permit of Thomas Bowlin after receiving information that Bowlin had been convicted of a felony in March of 1962. [LS0211133RSG]

Robert Clark, Madison – Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked the temporary private security permit of Robert Clark. After an FBI background check it was found that Clark was convicted of a felony in April of 1983. [LS0211132RSG]

Edward Collins, Van Nuys, CA – Professional Engineer. The Professional Engineers Section of the Examining Board of Architects, Landscape Architects, Professional Engineers, Designers and Land Surveyors reprimanded Edward Collins for violations of Nevada law relating to the signing and sealing of documents. [LS0211141ENG]

David Darcy, Marinette – Physician and Surgeon. The Medical Examining Board reprimanded David Darcy for continuing to practice after his license was suspended. [LS0211201MED]

Dennis Davis, Blue River – Practical Nurse. The Board of Nursing accepted the surrender of Dennis Davis's license. Davis diverted a controlled substance for his own personal use by falsifying patient records. [LS0211071NUR]

Susan Detert, Wausau – Practical Nurse. The Board of Nursing reprimanded Susan Detert. Detert represented herself as currently licensed and continued to work after her registration expired. [LS0211072NUR]

James M. Ferrell, Oak Creek – Optometrist. The Optometry Examining Board reprimanded James M. Ferrell for failing to inform a patient of a higher intraocular pressure (IOP) reading obtained as a result of an eye examination and for failing to refer the patient to an ophthalmologist for further evaluation. The Board also ordered Dr. Ferrell to complete 10 hours of education focusing on glaucoma. [LS0211081OPT]

John Frenz, Brandon, MS – Medicine and Surgery. The surrender of John Frenz's license was accepted by the Medical Examining Board. Frenz surrendered his license in connection with charges brought against him by the Mississippi State Board of Medical Licensure. [LS0209271MED]

Nancy Granlund, Pewaukee – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing reprimanded and limited the license of Nancy Granlund. Granlund worked as the director of nursing at a long term care facility. The reasons cited for the Board's action relate to the care of a patient's foot condition, including recording the foot condition on the patient's chart, notifying the patient's physician of the condition, and seeing that a follow-up assessment of the foot condition was completed. [LS0211073NUR]

Carol Hemker, Watertown – Veterinary Technician. The Veterinary Examining Board reprimanded Carol Hemker for using two controlled substances for a purpose other than permitted by the Drug Enforcement Agency. The drugs, Ketamine and Rompun, are permitted for purposes of animal euthanasia. Hemker used the drugs as an anesthetic. [LS0211134VET]

Patricia Hereford, Janesville – Practical Nurse. The Board of Nursing suspended the license of Patricia Hereford, conditioning the suspension upon her compliance with limitations set by the Board. Multiple allegations of unprofessional conduct were received against Hereford including rudeness to patients, medication and documentation errors, and failure to provide treatments in a timely manner. [LS02111301NUR]

Kindred Pharmacy Services, New Berlin – Pharmacy. The Pharmacy Examining Board reprimanded Kindred Pharmacy Services and ordered payment of a forfeiture because the pharmacy had no record of a beginning inventory when the pharmacy changed its location. [LS0211121PHM]

Stephanie Kosidowski, Sussex – Physical Therapist. The Physical Therapists Affiliated Credentialing Board reprimanded Stephanie Kosidowski because she did not supervise a physical therapist aide as required by the Board's rules. Kosidowski was not available at all times for consultation with the aide and failed to observe and monitor the aide. [LS0211051PHT]

Ann Moore, Oshkosh – Registered Pharmacist. The Pharmacy Examining Board reprimanded Ann Moore and ordered a forfeiture. On eight occasions when Moore was the managing pharmacist of Vencare Pharmacy Services in New Berlin, the pharmacy had used emergency dispensing procedures but failed to obtain a signed prescription order containing the words "authorization for emergency dispensing" as required by law. [LS02111202PHM]

Larry Nillissen, Birnamwood – Dentist. The Dentistry Examining Board limited the license of Larry Nillissen to providing dental services to patients over 18 years of age. Nillissen was convicted in January 2002 of Fourth Degree Sexual Assault. [LS0211061DEN]

Osco Drug #5020, Marinette – Pharmacy. The Pharmacy Examining Board reprimanded Osco Drug #5020 and ordered payment of a forfeiture. Osco operated a pharmacy without a managing pharmacist for 44 days. [LS02111203PHM]

Thomas Phillips, Delafield – Registered Pharmacist. The Pharmacy Examining Board suspended and limited the license of Thomas Phillips. Phillips dispensed medications to himself and his wife without a prescription order or any other authority and created a telephone prescription order for the medications from a physician who had no knowledge of the order. The Board also ordered payment of a forfeiture. [LS0211212PHM]

Steven Puckette, Madison – Chiropractor. The Chiropractic Examining Board suspended the license of Steven Puckette for 30 days for recommending and selling various “nutritional supplements” as treatment for medical conditions of a three-year-old patient, including treatment described as “oral chelation therapy”. [LS0211211CHI]

Jacqueline Sedlar, Milwaukee – Practical Nurse. The Board of Nursing limited the license of Jacqueline Sedlar. While working in a hospital, Sedlar performed unnecessary procedures on four patients. The Board also found that while employed in a nursing home, Sedlar wheeled a resident down a hallway with the resident’s breasts exposed and applied a waist restraint on a resident without a physician’s orders. The Board decision is a finding that Sedlar abused or neglected a client. [LS0211074NUR]

H. Winston Slater, Milwaukee – Dentist. The Dentistry Examining Board reprimanded H. Winston Slater and ordered him to complete thirty hours of community service. Slater continued to practice after his license lapsed. [LS0211062DEN]

Gregory Teche, Janesville – Registered Pharmacist. Gregory Teche’s license was suspended by the Pharmacy Examining Board. Teche diverted several controlled substances from pharmacy stock for his personal use. [LS02111205PHM]
